CHORALEERS

Chorus

Under the direction of Mr. Glen Steele, the Rensselaer Central High School choral organizations have expanded and improved. The Girls Glee Club was revived and enlarged. Admission to Chorus has been made competitive with a compulsory audition. The 16 voice Choraleers acquired blazers this fall and have performed at various functions in the area as well as at the NISBOVA contest in Merrillville. The Spring Concert was the climax to a year of hard work on the part of both the students and the director.

Activities

Homecoming

Football has always been an important and exciting activity at Rensselaer Central. The 1967 Homecoming was no exception. Even the rainy weather did not dampen spirits of loyal RCHS fans. The players gave their best, but the Bombers fell to the Delphi Oracles. Mike Malone crowned Queen Ruth Lanoue; our honored guest was Judge Moses Leopold.

Prom 1967

"Song of the Islands"

By disguising the gymnasium as a South Sea island, the theme for the 1967 Prom was set. The climax of the tropical evening came with the coronation of Queen Jane Pfledderer and King Dave Bruce.

Drama Club

Jenny Kissed Me

It Happens Every Summer

Dramatics is an excellent means of self-expression. Last Spring we presented "Jenny Kissed Me." Thisfall, under the direction of Mrs. Price, the senior class presented "It Happens Every Summer."

Roger Kohlhagen, Richard Kohlhagen, Mr. Callahan, David Rodibaugh, and Max Rodibaugh.

State Champion and National Gold Emblem FFA Livestock Judging Team

The Rensselaer Central High School FFA Livestock Judging Team won the State Championship at the 1967 Indiana State Fair. Dave Rodibaugh had the highest score of any individual participating in the contest. In winning the State Championship, the team became eligible to compete at the National FFA Convention in Kansas City. There they placed in the National Gold Emblem Division.

The Student Body wishes to congratulate Mr. Callahan and his judging team for their fine representation of our school.

Throughout the past four years, Rensselaer Central High School has been given ample opportunity to be proud of its last class of Seniors to graduate from the old High School. In numerous activities, outstanding members of the Class of '68 have shown their proficiency and contributed more than their share to the social, intellectual, and athletic life of RCHS.

Even as early as their Freshman year, for example, the class was bringing recognition to Rensselaer with winning contributions to the Purdue University and Rensselaer Central Science Fairs. In 1966, Mr. Dickinson's Debate Team was active and greatly supported by the intelligence and skill of those who were then Sophomores. The next year, it seems, the honors increased. Our prize-winning Homecoming float, with which surprising numbers volunteered to help, was another credit to the Class of '68. The memorable Prom, its theme "Song of the Island," was also an example of cooperation, diligent work, and imagination. Our National Honor Society members, elected in that year, can truly be said to represent the best of the Class of '68.

Early in 1967 RCHS had a successful Homecoming, despite a heartbreaking defeat by Delphi. The Senior Class Play was an entertainment success. Senior participation in student government has provided capable leadership and sound suggestions for the improvement of the students' lot.

As has been demonstrated in the past four years, the adult world, whether in higher education or in the working force, has some pretty tough competition for which to prepare itself.

The CHAOS staff and the Class of '68 wish to thank Mr. Erickson for his donation of time, effort, and materials in helping us produce the 1968 CHAOS.

Bomber Boosters

The Pep Club, always enthusiastic, was exceptionally so this year. In fact, Coach McCray has attributed many of our team's second-half comebacks to the wild cheering of the Pep Club.

The Pep Band has provided much of the spirit characteristic of our basketball games, not to mention the musical entertainment during half time.
